OLD DOCTRINE IS ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCED TO WHOLE WORLD AIMED DIRECTLY AT THE JAPANESE

House Resolution Says Brown
Men Are Unwelcome Here.

ALSO REBUKES THE MEXICANS

Florida Congressman Sounds Warning to European Nations That the United States Can Not Permit Further Extension of Colonization Systems On the Western Hemisphere. Substance of the Resolution.

Washington, July 26.—The doctrine of "America for the Americans" was proclaimed again in the house in a manner calculated to cause further irritation in the relations of the United States with both Japanese and Mexicans. Representative Frank Clark of Florida (Dem.) introduced a resolution aimed directly at Japan and constituting also a sharp rebuke to Mexico for its recent ostentatious flirting with the Tokyo government. The resolution is certain to increase a popular feeling against the United States in both Japan and Mexico, although it undoubtedly will be pigeonholed in the house committee on foreign affairs.

Mr. Clark's resolution reaffirms the Monroe doctrine in all its essentials, declares that the United States can not permit further extension of colonization systems by European governments in this hemisphere, and proclaims particular objections to colonizations by people with whom "Caucasians can not and will not assimilate."

While mere reaffirmation of the Monroe doctrine would be regarded as significant at this moment and the warning to the foreign nations not to extend any colonization schemes in Latin-America as of even greater importance, the sting of Clark's resolution lies in its final clause, "and particularly shall we object to such colonization by people with whom the Caucasians can not and will not assimilate." This clause, obviously aimed at Japan, combines in a manner which probably will be found most offensive in Japan, both the principles of the Monroe doctrine and the racial question, which forms the basis of the present serious controversy with Japan arising out of the California alien land law. It seems to be nothing less than notice to Japan that not only did the United States find her subjects unwelcome within its own territory, but that their presence in considerable numbers will not be tolerated in the western hemisphere.

Representative Clark's resolution has grown out of the recent pro-Japan action of the Mexican government and people.

HOGAN'S OPINION

Error in Printing Will Not Invalidate the Judicial Act.

Columbus, O., July 26.—The fact that there was an error in the printing of the Friebolin judicial bill, creating a chief justice of the supreme court, will not invalidate the law, according to Attorney General Hogan. The enrolled copy gives the date of the passage as April 29, whereas the legislature was working on the bill the clock hands set back. Discovery of this error led to the assertion that the whole bill is knocked out, but this was branded as incorrect.

CONVICTS SHUN CHANCE TO ESCAPE AND JOIN FIREMEN IN VAIN ATTEMPT TO SAVE WORKSHOPS AT SING SING

Ossining, N. Y., July 26.—The remarkable feature of the $150,000 fire at Sing Sing prison was that in spite of the opportunities afforded none of the 1,400 convicts tried to escape. On the other hand, 200 of them, trained as a fire brigade, helped the Ossining firemen to fight the flames. The other 1,200 were marched to their cells and locked up. The paint shop, mat shop, where the blaze started; cart and wagon shop and lumber storage were destroyed. Kurt Schoen, here, burglar, escaped a few nights ago, and one theory, shared by the convicts, was that he had been hiding inside the prison wall and rather than starve or give himself up set fire and perished. Warden Clancy believes the fire is another argument for immediate work on a new prison. The damage done by the fire amounted to $200,000.

LOBBY COMMITTEE QUILTS WORK READING LETTERS WITH RECORD

HE SIGHTS THE END OF COPPER STRIKE

Michigan Governor Takes Optimistic View of Situation.

Lansing, Mich., July 26.—Governor Ferris believes that the labor troubles in the upper peninsula will be of short duration. He says that the state troops will be kept in the copper country as long as their presence is needed to assure protection to life and property. Should the situation become so acute that extreme measures are necessary, Governor Ferris says that the entire copper country will be placed under martial law, but this action will be taken only as a last resort.

Sheriff Gruze of Houghton county telegraphed Governor Ferris that he expects serious trouble when an attempt is made to operate the pumps in certain mines which the strikers forced the mine employees to abandon.

Says He Is Not Breaking Down, but Begs the Senate Lobby Investigating Committee to Let Up—Adjournment Taken Until Monday, When Reading of Letters Will Be Resumed—The Day's Disclosures.

Washington, July 26.—With about 1,000 more of Martin M. Mulhall's letters to read into the record, the senate lobby investigating committee adjourned until Monday. Mulhall showed signs of the strain he has been under. He became confused during the reading of one letter and when Senator Walsh suggested that he needed a rest he exclaimed: "I'm just about broke down. For God's sake do have mercy if you can. I don't want to say I'm breaking down, but I don't want to answer questions if you'll let me go."

PRESIDENT PUTS MEXICAN MUDDLE UP TO CONGRESS

Arbitration Plan is Losing Advocates at a Rate Which Seems to Foreshadow the Doom of the Adoption of Such a Course as a Means to End the Trouble and Restore Order in Distracted Republic.

Intervention Now Held to Be The Only Solution of Problem

Army and Navy and All Consuls and Government Agents Are Gathering Complete Data Relating to Present Conditions and as a Consequence a Steady Stream of Reports is Pouring Into the Departments.

Washington, July 26.—President Wilson has put the Mexican problem squarely up to Congress for the first time since the Civil war in that country began.

Mediation assuredly will be offered to the contending factions in Mexico, but it is foredoomed to rejection by Huerta, Carranza and the leaders of all other revolutionary parties. Every member of the Foreign Relations Committee says he fears that intervention is inevitable.

One of the members of this committee says in most significant language that no European Power "will be allowed" to intervene in Mexico, indicating that the President, by means of Congress, to whom he has shifted the responsibility, would stand for American intervention only.

These are the important and salient developments of the day on the Mexican question, which is engrossing the State Department, Congress and the army and navy.

Secretary of State Bryan returned to Washington and was immediately sent for by the President to come to the White House for a conference.

There was no Cabinet meeting and the President, after hearing what Mr. Bryan had to report, let him go and called him back again to the White House later in the day, when he probably had information that he lacked at the first meeting with the President.

Secretary Bryan, for some time at least, will have a great deal to do at the State Department and White House.

One of the official statements made today was that the War Department now gets its news for the State Department, and it later developed that every officer in command of a ship in or near Mexican waters was sending detailed reports on military conditions in the distracted republic.

These reports from Consuls, Navy officers on the border and from private sources all go to the State Department where they later find their way to the White House on demand.

These reports include the whereabouts of all the forces in Mexico, who are the commanders, what is the strength of individual commands and the number of guns and their type. It is understood that Rear Admiral Frank Beatty, who recently came to the Navy Department from Vera Cruz, gave valuable information.

The State Department has thus become the War Office and it is well known that there can be no movement of ships or part of army without consultation with the State Department, or in other words, with the White House.

All officials here connect absolutely the military information which is being collected by the various departments, with the ultimate necessity of intervention.

The President and Secretary Bryan expect to get the views of Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson on his arrival here. Armed with this information, Secretary Bryan is to go before the Foreign Relations Committee tomorrow, ostensibly to discuss Nicaragua, but really to be questioned by Senators as to the latest conditions in Mexico.

Secretary Bryan will be in position tomorrow to say directly to the committee that mediation will not be acceptable either to Huerta or to Carranza. The Carranzists here, talking for their chief, say that they will not tolerate intervention, and Ambassador Wilson already is on record at the State Department as stating that mediation talk, commission talk, the settlement of Mexican affairs by nations in South and Central America is "mischievous."

DANGER LURKS IN HIGH VOLTAGE WIRES

Within a short time the new transmission line between this city and Leesburg will be completed, and for those who live near the high voltage wire it may be said that danger will lurk in the wires and that the unwary lad who may chance to climb a tree or pole is liable to electrocution as the wires will not be harmless.

Several persons have been seriously shocked by coming in contact with the wires on other lines in the county, not knowing that real danger existed in the apparently harmless strands of copper.

POST RESENTS MEDDLING OF "ANTI-SALOON" IN PIQUA ROW

Representative From This Congressional District Declares War on Anti-Saloon League and Threatens To Have Leaders Summoned Before Lobby Probe Committee.

INTERFERENCE OF DRY FORCES WITH NOMINATION OF PRINCE

Gets on the Nerves of Local Man Who, in Caustic Language Criticizes Preacher Leader of the Washington Branch of Anti-Saloon League. Dry Forces Are Said to Be The Only Obstruction in Path Of Choice of Pomerene and Post For Piqua Job.

Washington, July 25.—As the result of the reported interference of the Anti-Saloon League in the Piqua Ohio, Postoffice case, Representative J. D. Post, of Washington C. H., is threatening to have the league's legislative agent, Rev. E. C. Dinwiddie, who maintains Washington headquarters for the organization, haled before the House Lobby Committee, which soon is to begin its investigation of legislative influences in Washington.

The general charge against Mr. Dinwiddie will be that he actively has lobbied for and against candidates for appointive office, using the influence of the Anti-Saloon League throughout the country as a club to back his demands.

The League's methods are said to be little different than those employed by the National Association of Manufacturers the revelation of which now is causing many virtuously self-sufficient people to hold up their hands in holy horror.

ACTION IS CRITICISED.

Representative Post says he learned today that Mr. Dinwiddie has been approaching Senators with the evident purpose of arousing antagonism to the confirmation of Dr. Will S. Prince, whose nomination to be Postmaster at Piqua evidently is expected Post avers that the preacher-lobbyist has been telling Senators that Prince is obnoxious to the League. The Congressman understands that Superintendent Wayne B. Wheeler of the League in Ohio also has been active.

Apparently the only thing now standing in the way of speedy confirmation of Prince, after his nomination is sent to the Senate, is the opposition of the Anti-Saloon League.

Senator Burton indicated today that he would not be disposed to hold up the appointment. But the influence of the temperance organization is strong in Washington, and as a result of the efforts of Dinwiddie some of the friends of Henry Kampf, the unsuccessful candidate for the Piqua job, are betting that Prince will not be confirmed at the present session of Congress.

OBJECTIONS CLEARED AWAY. Representative Post has been informed that all objections to the nomination of Prince have been formally cleared away by the Postoffice Inspectors who recently went to Piqua to investigate the charges. These Inspectors had reported verbally 10 days ago to this effect but, today they submitted their written report. The Inspectors found that most of the charges against Prince had their inception in the fact that the doctor has been very active in local politics. Post was again predicting today that Prince's nomination would be sent to the Senate early next week.

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST HUSBAND

Dayton Woman Sues Husband For Divorce and Long List of Charges Form Part of Petition for Annulment of Marriage Ties—Husband Lives in This City and Sheriff Nelson Serves Papers Today.

Sheriff Nelson Saturday served papers on John Perry, of this city, in an action for divorce brought by his wife, Myrtle Perry, in the Common Pleas Court of Montgomery county.

The plaintiff claims that she was married to the defendant at Bainbridge, O., April 25, 1895, and that four children, Robert aged 12, George aged 9, Frank aged 7 and John, aged 3, were born to them. All of the children are now in the custody of the defendant.

Mrs. Perry charge her husband with gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. She claims he drove her from their home at the point of a gun, and that upon three occasions he whipped her with a buggy whip; that he choked her and knocked her down, and that he, while in a drunken condition, threatened to kill her and her family.

Other charges are: breaking up the furniture, drawing a pen-knife, and threatening to strike her with it.

She also makes other serious accusations involving certain statutory offences.

The names of two Bainbridge women are mentioned in the petition. She asks divorce, custody of their children and alimony.

John J. Hoover, of Dayton, is attorney for the plaintiff.

BOND ISSUE CARRIES BY VERY SMALL VOTE

As a result of the special election on the question of issuing an additional $7,000 for school purposes the village of Frankfort was granted permission to proceed, the vote standing 86 to 70.

In Social Circles

Mr. Edward Hunt and Miss Chloe Bishop were quietly married Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop.

It was a simple, home wedding, with summer flowers scenting the rooms and only the immediate family witnessing the ring ceremony, performed by Rev. A. W. West.

The bride, who is an extremely pretty girl, wore a stunning coat suit of French Saiting in navy blue, with hand embroidered lingerie waist and white panama hat, trimmed in white wings.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt left on the afternoon train for Topriea Beach, Mich., where they will spend a couple of weeks at the summer home of Mr. Hunt's sister, Mrs. Ray Zartner and later visit the bridegroom's parents at Charleston, W. Va.

Both young people have the best wishes of many friends. The bride has had charge of the notion department of the F. L. Stutson department store and her attractive personality has won friends in both business and social relations.

The bride-groom came from Columbus to this city three years ago and has since been associated with the Daily Herald making good professionally and as an all around good fellow.

The bride was given a miscellaneous shower Thursday night by Miss Minetta Thorp and received a number of beautiful gifts in cut glass, silver, linen and china.

The affair was charmingly appointed, with a pink and white color scheme carried out in the decorations and a delicious luncheon served.

Miss Thorp received in white and the honor guest wore a lovely gown of grey satin striped voile, with girdle of salmon chiffon.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. W. A. Thorp and Miss Lora Ellen Thorp.

Thirty young women attended.

Mrs. H. D. Chaffin and Miss Del Lanum entertained Friday afternoon with one of the prettiest and most pleasurable of the summer parties at the L. O. O. F. hall.

Twenty tables of matrons and girls engaged in a game of "500". Mrs. L. P. Howell receiving an exquisite nosegay at the games' trophy.

The I. O. O. F. hall, spacious and cool, furnished most attractive setting for the beautifully gowned women who greeted the hostesses.

Bowls of sweet peas, nasturtiums and ferns, artistically placed, gave added embellishment.

A refreshing summer collation was served and a big bowl of golden punch was presided over by Miss Prudence Culhan. During the refreshment hour Mrs. Lydia Vincent and Miss Dorothy Smith played. Also assisting in the cordial hospitalities of the afternoon were Misses Marie Lanum, Ruth Craig, Marie Dale and Goldie Baughm.

Miss Loreen Laramie, of Flint, Mich., was an out of town guest.

WOODSON—JONES.

Mr. James Woodson and Miss Alma Jones, both colored, are announcing their marriage, which took place in Covington, Ky., on the 26th of June.

BANG! BRAKES PUT ON BY COURT

Judge Carpenter, on Petition of Property Owners Grants Temporary Injunction Against Proceeding With Washington Avenue Street Paving.

Saturday afternoon Attorneys John Logan and H. H. Sanderson, representing R. W. Hutson, William Lucas, John P. Sutherland and H. R. Rodecker, filed suit in the common pleas court making the city of Washington and Service Director C. E. Mark defendants asking that they be enjoined from proceeding further with the contemplated improvement of Washington Avenue.

The plaintiffs claim that it was not necessary to make the improvement, and that a majority of the property owners remonstrated against the act of council, but the remonstrance was entirely ignored, and further legislation passed ordering Service Director Mark to advertise for bids and let the contract, and that unless restrained he will have the improvement made.

The claim is also made that the proceedings are wholly illegal and a violation of Section 3838 of the General Code.

The plaintiffs in addition to asking that Service Director Mark be enjoined from proceeding further also ask that council be restrained from making further action regarding the improvement.

The final disposition of the case will settle some interesting and important rules of law which are now mooted by the profession throughout the state. Among these rules which will be established is the conclusiveness of council authority under the law to declare the necessity for the improvement.

It is contended now by many that the law does not vest council with an authority to declare the necessity for an improvement which cannot be questioned.

A temporary injunction was allowed by Judge Carpenter and it will stand unless dissolved on motion of the defendants over final hearing of the case.

MATINEE RACES NEXT WEDNESDAY

The regular matinee races will be held at the fair grounds next Wednesday afternoon, and much interest is being manifested in the offering of speed, which is reported to be exceptionally good.

Farmers will be through with much of their work at that time and an increase in attendance is anticipated.

Miss Dorcas Mussey, of Glendale, is the guest of Miss Meda Cockerill, south of town.

Mr. Glenn Allen, of Athens, is the guest of his father, Mr. J. H. Allen.

Mrs. O. K. Probasco and children left Saturday morning for a visit with Mrs. Probasco's parents in Ada. They were accompanied by Mrs. Probasco's sister, Miss Mary Wilson, who has been staying at her home the past year while taking osteopathic treatment under Dr. C. C. Hazard. She returns greatly benefited by the treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Anthony returned Saturday afternoon from Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus. Mr. Anthony having recovered from his recent operation sufficiently to make the trip home nicely.

Mr. Ralph Brown of Springfield, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. H. C. Teachnor. Mr. Lester Dodd left Saturday for Keyser and Petersburg, W. Va., to join his wife who is visiting her relatives. He expects to be gone till the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Conn Ducey have moved from the Morgan flat on Main street to the residence recently purchased from Mr. Frank Kearney on Columbus avenue.

Mr. Frank M. Kennedy was taken to his home from the Fayette Hospital Saturday morning. It will be some time however, before he will be able to be out.

Stretching the Truth

People who cultivate a natural talent with a view to keeping up talk—just talk quantities of it—without regard to substance, not infrequently drift into a habit of stretching the truth to such a marked extent that the final presentation of their statement bears close resemblance to falsehood.

These people are not at all malicious in their statements, mean no harm and very rarely do any harm except to themselves. The greatest incentive so far discovered to the work of developing the vocal chords, is the small talk so popular among society folk.

Indulging in small talk is a dangerous pastime any way. If people have nothing to say they had better keep still.

It is a mistake to think that the ability to rattle off a long string of small talk is an accomplishment, for it is not so regarded, at least not by people whose admiration is valued.

People cannot indulge in the physical exercise of talking without some definite knowledge of what they are talking about and with a purpose in view. Those people who make a specialty of the small talk of high society, too frequently for the good of their moral and intellectual development, start with a small kernel of fact, unattractive in itself, scarcely worthy of mention at all, and then they proceed to dress it up in bundles and strings of words until it becomes really interesting. It doesn't look like the same fact, in fact it doesn't look like any fact at all and an investigation by the one at whom the volley of small talk was hurled, very frequently results in a disclosure of so small a grain of truth that the hearer brands the talker as a person untruthful.

As a matter of fact the small talker soon attains a reputation for untruthfulness which is as undeserved as it is harmful.

It is but a short step from the apparently harmless position of stretching little truths, just a little, to make them interesting, to stretching them to such an extent that they become startling and from there on to the accomplished and malicious falsifier is but another step, and the grade is descending and easily traveled.

Talking to make a noise is one thing and a dangerous thing. Talking to impart knowledge and facts is another and a wholesome thing.

United States Serves as Model to China

Celestial Republic Will Be Land of Freedom

By YUAN SHIH KAI, President of the Chinese Republic.

WHILE the United States has wronged China but once, she has been her true friend time without number, and the blot of the exclusion of my countrymen from the United States has been covered deep or WASHED AWAY BY THE KINDLY ACTS OF THE UNITED STATES IN LATER YEARS.

We did not know how strong a friend and champion we had in America until the Boxer troubles. It seemed as if it was the intention of the foreign nations to make an end to the independent sovereignty of China, but the United States stood splendidly for our CONTINUED INDEPENDENCE.

SAY TO THE PEOPLE OF AMERICA THAT THEY ARE LOOKED UPON WITH GREAT RESPECT AND KINDNESS IN CHINA, THAT OUR OLD MEN ARE FULL OF GRATITUDE AND THAT OUR YOUNG MEN HOPE TO BUILD A NATION THAT WILL BE TO ASIA WHAT THE UNITED STATES IS TO AMERICA—A GREAT LAND OF FREEDOM AND PROSPERITY, OF ENLIGHTENMENT AND TOLERATION, OF PEACE AND INDUSTRY.

I remember that Washington refused a crown. His crown is placed in the HEARTS OF HIS PEOPLE, and is it not greater and more immortal than any which they might have placed upon his head? I have thought of this many times, and especially strong have been my thoughts when rumors have come to me that I was accused of desiring either to re-establish the old monarchy or become the head of a new one. Each of these ideas is as absurd and groundless as the other.

For the republic I live! For China's present and future welfare I live! I am not a dictator nor a king, nor do I hope or plan to be either, but I would LIVE AND SERVE AND DIE FOR THE GOOD OF MY PEOPLE.

Poetry For Today

MY CONSCIENCE.

Sometimes my Conscience says, says he,
"Don't you know me?"
And I, says I, skinned through and through,
"Of course I do.
You are a nice chap ever way I'm here to say!
You make me cry—you make me pray,
And all them good things thataway—
That is, at night. Where do you stay Durin' the day?"

And then my Conscience says, one's more,
"You know me—shore?"
"Oh, yes," says I, a-trimblin' faint.
"You're jes' a saint!
Your ways is all so holy-right,
I love you better ever' night
You come around—tel plum day-light.
When you air out o'sight!"

And then my Conscience sort o' grites His teeth, and spits
On his two hands and grabs, of course,
Some old remorse,
And beats me with the big butt-and O' that thing—tel my closest friend
"Ud hardly know me. "Now," says he,
"Be keeful as you'd orto be
And allus think o' me!"
—James Whitcomb Riley in Century.

TOLEDO BOYS WIN

Athens, O., July 26.—Troop D of Toledo won the silver trophy in the maneuvers of the First Squadron Ohio cavalry, which is in the annual instruction camp here. The Cleveland troop was awarded second place in the trophy contest, being only one point behind the winner. Cincinnati and Columbus finished third and fourth.

EVEN THE PRISONERS

Mexico City, July 25.—A mutiny was started in Belen prison in an attempt to liberate 3,000 convicts. It seems that convicts were lined up in the courtyard for the purpose of choosing some who were to be transferred to the penitentiary when suddenly a bunch drew sharpened table knives and attempted to rush the guards. The soldiers fired upon some prisoners attempting to scale the gate, killing one and wounding several, and restoring quiet.

FIELDER FOR GOVERNOR

New York, July 26.—Former Mayor H. Otto Wittmann of Jersey City, who became a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in New Jersey nearly a year ago, announced that he has retired from the race. His action will, politicians declare, make absolutely certain the nomination of Acting Governor James F. Fielder. Mr. Wittmann was bowled out of the primary contest by President Wilson.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

A new world's shooting record of 103 consecutive bull's-eyes at the 800 yard range was held yesterday by Capt. Wise, of the Massachusetts militia, who eclipsed the former record held by James Hession, of Bridgeport, Conn., 46 bull's-eyes. Hession's record of 57 consecutive hits was made in 1909 at Camp Perry, Ohio.

The Rhode Island Historical society has recently placed in an old mill in Pawtucket a tablet to mark the place where cotton manufacturing was first undertaken in America. The tablet reads, "Here in 1793 was established the first successful cotton factory in the U. S." From that beginning 120 years ago the great industry that now employs 400,000 persons, turns over $700,000,000 of goods. The great mills of Fall River, New Bedford, Pawtucket, Lowell, Manchester, Biddleford, Lewiston and other New England towns are known all over the world. For 120 years New England has kept its supremacy at the cotton manufacturing center of America, although within the last 25 years mills have been built in the south, where the manufacturers have the advantages of cheaper labor and nearness to the raw material.—Youth's Companion.

The National Museum at Washington is an institution unlike anything else in the world. It might be called a curio ball, says the Washington Herald. The U. S. is the only nation that does not allow its officers to accept presents from foreign rulers and that accounts for many of the exhibits in the museum. The most precious, perhaps, is the collection of jewels which the Sultan of Muscat in Arabia gave to President Van Buren, comprising two large pearls as big as pigeons' eggs, 150 smaller pearls and 130 diamonds.

The most valuable of the jewels, however, are those which are set in the swords, guns and canes presented to our great men. These jewels are so valuable that a guard is detailed to watch them day and night, and each case has a burglar alarm connected with it. The Grant collection alone is worth a princely fortune. It comprises a collection of gold and silver coins from Japan, elephant tusks from Siam, numbers of diamond-hilted swords and medals as big around as tea cups, one containing $600 worth of gold. Then there are a number of fine dresses and a cloak that is valued at $1,000,000 and casts in the shade all the other cloaks in the world. It is made of red and yellow feathers and comes from the Sandwich Islands.

Ambassador Wilson Talks About
Situation in Mexico.

FLOUTS MEDIATION SCHEME

Admits Conditions in the Southern Republic Are Critical, But Declares They Are Not So Bad as Painted. Arrives in Washington and Goes into Conference With the Secretary of State.

Washington, July 26.—Henry Lane Wilson, American ambassador to Mexico, who reached New York yesterday on the steamship Mexico, arrived here before noon today and an hour later was closeted with Mr. Bryan, the secretary of state, discussing the situation in Mexico.

To press representatives Ambassador Wilson expressed himself as completely satisfied with his own conduct while representing this country in the capital of Mexico; regrets nothing that he did against the Maderos, and as for the Huerta-Diaz faction insists that he would do the same thing over again.

The ambassador's temper rose perceptibly when asked what he thought about the accusation made by Mrs. Francisco I. Madero and Alfonso Madero that the American ambassador was morally responsible for the overthrow and the assassination of Madero. Mr. Wilson's eyes flashed. He cut the air with his clenched right fist.

"That is a lie," he cried. "Mrs. Madero forged letters in order to back up her story. I don't want to talk about a woman, but in this case I have to tell the truth about her, in justice to myself. She caused to be published letters purporting to be from me, but which I never wrote. The Madero family have persistently and deliberately lied about me and my acts. When the revolt occurred I realized that the Madero government could not stand. Knowing that American lives were in danger, and anxious to do my part in helping citizens of all nationalities, I brought General Huerta and General Diaz together. That was the only method of securing peace and an orderly government. If I hadn't done so, all Mexico City would have been in flames."

"What is the truth about the death of Madero?" the ambassador was asked.

"That is a matter which I can not discuss," he said. "I may say, though, that I have no reason to doubt the story that the president and the vice president of Mexico were shot to death while their guards were resisting an attempt at rescue from Maderistas."

Intervention Talk Absurd.

The ambassador admitted that he had sent to Mr. Hanna, the American consul general, a telegram requesting Hanna and all consular officers to urge general submission and adherence to the Huerta-Diaz government. This telegram was dated Feb. 21, immediately after the overthrow of Madero. "I sent those instructions," the ambassador said, "so that I might hold Huerta responsible for any loss of life which might occur thereafter. It was a well-established custom to send such instructions."

The ambassador talked freely about the intervention problem. "This talk about intervention and invasion is nonsense," he said. "Mexico is all right. There is no necessity for us to invade the territory of a friendly neighbor. Conditions have been exaggerated."

Referring to the situation in Mexico he said: "I should say that the situation is critical, but not so bad as has been painted. The greatest difficulty in Mexico is economic and financial. They need money. They need also a modern system of land tenure. I think these things, though, will come about in the course of the next few years."

"That mediation scheme," continued Mr. Wilson, "by which representatives of the United States and of two South American republics would form a tripartite commission to bring about peace in any disturbed Latin American country, is one of John Barret's ideas.

"I would like to be able to talk freely," said the ambassador. "There is a wonderful story to tell about Mexico and the happenings of the past six months. But I am tied by the office I hold. I say this, though—I stand pat on everything I have done. I haven't heard that I am to be dismissed. I don't believe I will be dismissed. Why should I be?"

Lobby Committee Quits Work --- Reading Letters With Record.

Chairman Overman announced that attorneys for the National Association of Manufacturers and the American Federation of Labor would be allowed to question the witness through the committee provided they submit questions 24 hours beforehand and receive the committee's approval.

Senator Nelson had a talk with the Democratic members before the decision was announced and it is known that he protested vigorously against allowing Mulhall's story to stand without examination by the lawyers for the organizations involved.

During the hearing a sharp debate occurred among members of the committee about whether foreign manufacturers and importers had influenced tariff reductions in the present bill.

Ohio Letters Read.

One letter offered showed that on Oct. 5, 1910, Mulhall wrote Former Senator Foraker about a talk with President Taft, saying he had submitted names of men who would help in the campaign. He seemed to scrutinize the list very closely," Mulhall wrote, "and talked as if John H. Taylor of East Liverpool and H. M. Hanna were not enthusiastic friends of his."

One of the last letters put in was from A. C. Marshall of Dayton to Counsel Emery of the manufacturers relating to the selection of a post office site at Dayton. A settlement was being delayed by "a speculative movement headed by James M. Cox, member of congress," now governor of Ohio, it said. The influence of President Taft and Former Secretary MacVeagh was sought in favor of a proposed site because it offered a market for the Dayton W. C. A. building.

ABSURDLY FALSE SAYS GOVERNOR COX

Columbus, O., July 26.—"It is absolutely false and absurd to say I headed a speculative movement to thwart the purchase of the W. C. A. building. I haven't spoken to him in 10 years. Neither have I spoken to John Kirby, Jr., for almost that long," declared Governor Cox when informed of the Mulhall testimony.

New York, July 26.—Howard S. Elliott, who succeeded Charles S. His duties as president will be temporary, however. Acting upon suggestions of a committee representing the shareholders of the road, the board of directors decided that the entire system ought to be reorganized just as soon as possible. Mr. Elliott, under the proposed scheme, will be chairman of the board for the New Haven and of the board of each of its subsidiaries.

New York, July 26.—Two high school boys, each 16, were sentenced by Judge Foster in general sessions to the unprecedented term of 20 years in the Elmira reformatory. The usual sentence to Elmira is 13 months. The prisoners, until their arrest, were students in the Stuyvesant high school and had stolen several thousand dollars' worth of dental supplies in a series of robberies. In one of the holdups a man was shot and seriously wounded.

FOUND SON DEAD

Premont, O., July 26.—Hearing a cry for help, Mrs. Clarence Hindey went into the woods near her home and found her 12-year-old son hanging from a tree by a rope of a swing. He was dead when she cut his body down. Companions of the boy were so small that they were unable to tell of the tragedy. From the position of his body it is believed that he slipped while swinging and the rope became entangled about his neck.

Cincinnati, O., July 26.—The Merchants' Drayage company filed suit for $5,000 damages against the teamsters' union and its officials and also asking the court to enjoin the union from interfering with the employees of the company. BIRTH STRIKE FOR ELECTORAL REFORMS.

Berlin, July 26.—It developed that declaration of a "birth strike" was suggested at a meeting held to discuss the advisability of a general strike as the best means of bringing about electoral reforms in Prussia. The father of the idea was Dr. Alfred Bernstein, Socialist, who declared the most successful pressure would be exerted on the government if mothers would announce: "We will bring no children into the world to become citizens of this state unless better rights of citizenship are accorded."

RECALLS EVENT OCCURRING IN 1847

BOARD OF REVIEW COMPLETES WORK

Mrs. Violet Hatch, Aged 101 Years, Comes to Rescue of Perplexed Standard Oil Company and She is Able to Give Clear Title to Property — Jamestown's Remarkable Woman.

A story of the remarkable memory of Mrs. Violet Hatch, aged 101 years who resides at Jamestown, has come to light, and the manner in which she recalls incidents of 65 years ago has helped the Standard Oil Company attorney out of a perplexing situation.

The Standard Oil Company has purchased a tract of land in Jamestown with the intention of erecting a distributing plant upon it, and the attorney in running the abstract found that Timothy Neal had conveyed the property back in 1850, and that no Mrs. Neal signed the deed.

Fearing that it might cause a defective title, the attorney commenced the work of ascertaining whether or not Timothy Neal was married and if his wife was living at the time.

It came to the ears of Charley Hatch, a great grandson of Mrs. Violet Hatch, and he, recalling that his grandmother had often spoken of the Neals and particularly of Timothy Neal, went to her for the information, but she could not recall whether Timothy Neal was married in the year 1850, but was inclined to believe he was.

While she was talking with her grand son Mrs. Violet Hatch overheard the conversation and said: "Timothy Neal's wife died in 1847 and he did not marry again for ten years."

"But Timothy was married three times," said the younger Mrs. Hatch, who has passed her 79th year.

"No, child, you are wrong; it was Edmund, his brother, who was married three times. Timothy was married twice."

And when the information was brought out, a notary was called and Mrs. Hatch made affidavit to the fact, subscribing her name to the affidavit and laughing at the notary who suggested that she make her mark.

DEATH OF MRS. BARBEE

Mrs. Mary J. Barbee, mother of Mrs. S. B. Alderson, passed away, July 14th at the home of her daughter, in Tarkio, Kan., after a few months of extreme weakness, aged 83 years and 5 months. She retained her faculties until the very last.

Many friends of the Alderson family in this city remember the sweet, kindly, gentlewoman who was loved by all who knew her and are glad to know that her closing days were rounded out in unusual happiness and comfort.

The remains were interred in Topeka, Kan., to which city the Aldersons removed the 1st of October and where they expect to make their future home.

Additional $179,200 Added To The Tax Duplicate As Result of Inquiry Made By City Board of Review—Largest Increases Comes Through Under Valuation of New Structures

After several weeks' continuous work the City Board of Review, consisting of Messrs. J. A. Edge, J. C. Dunn and Chas. Coffey, completed the work of review Friday evening, adding $179,200 to the tax duplicate in this city.

In the four wards of the city the assessors returned $894,834 in personal property, and to this the Board of Review added $65,465 by careful investigation.

To the $595,827 of incorporated companies the Board added $15,979.

The greatest addition to property valuations, however, was made on new structures erected during the past year. The assessors' returns showed $79,665 and to this amount the Board added $97,765, clearly indicating that the valuation of new structures was deemed entirely too low.

To the tax valuations corrected by the Board of Review will be added the valuations of the Public Service concerns and the banks operating in the city.

The work of the Board was concluded within the forty day period limit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Peddicord and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunn left Saturday to attend the funerals and Mr. Robert Dunn goes Sunday.

Here is a great new Chalmers "Thirty-Six" for 1914 at the sensational price of $1775.

For the past two seasons the "Thirty-Six" has been acknowledged the greatest four-cylinder value on the market. Ten thousand cars of this model in daily service have built up its reputation for endurance, easy riding, mechanical smoothness, convenience, luxury and economy.

The 1914 "Thirty-Six" is more than ever before a wonderful value. Fine new features have been added; there have been material improvements in design—yet the price is only $1775.

How We Get the Price.

The price of the 1914 Chalmers "Thirty-Six" has been made possible through increased production facilities and improved manufacturing methods. There has been no change in the quality of materials.

Fenders of an entirely new modeled oval design—very popular abroad—are a feature of the "Thirty-Six." These fenders not only add to the graceful appearance of the car but afford greater protection from dust and mud. These beautiful fenders are a distinctive 1914 improvement which you will be unable to get on any other car at the price.

Gas Tanks and Tires in Rear.

The entire car has been made more clean-cut and snappy in appearance. The gasoline tank and the spare tires are now carried at the rear, giving that much-desired appearance of length, clean running boards, and better riding qualities.

The 1914 "Thirty-Six" is convenient. Every driving operation is controlled from the seat. A button operates the efficient Chalmers Self-Starter. One simple switch controls the Gray & Davis Lighting System. Carburetor is adjusted from the dash. Ignition switch, gasoline pressure pump, light meter, horn and Warner Speedometer are all on the cowl dash. A new adjustable dash light illuminates all the control devices.

The new car is designed for utmost strength and safety. Axles are of nickel-steel; the double drop frame is unusually heavy. Steering connections are all drop forgings. Brakes are of maximum strength and power, 25 times as strong, in proportion, as the brakes of a locomotive.

Full Equipment Included.

The 1914 "Thirty-Six" at $1775 is fully equipped with Chalmers mohair top, Collins quick-acting curtains, genuine rain-vision windshield, Chalmers patented self-starter, 36" x 4" tires, Continental demountable rims (one extra), Warner speedometer, Gray & Davis full electric lighting system, with special new dash light and provision for inspection lamp, new design non-rattling tire carrier, power tire inflator, horn, pump, jack, full set of tools and tire repair outfit.

See this new "Thirty-Six" at our show room and you will be convinced that it is a most unusual value at the price.

Quick deliveries guaranteed.

PROPERTY OWNER MUST GET BUSY

For weeks farmers have been interested in the new law which takes effect August 6th, requiring all owners of property adjoining the public highway to cut the weeds along the roadside, or pay for having them cut.

Ever since the public roads have existed portions of the road have been permitted to grow up in weeds, seeding the surrounding territory. It has been customary for the land owner to receive pay for cutting weeds, but after August 6th he must cut the weeds, brush and briars along the road.

Should Mr. Landowner fail to cut the weeds within a reasonable time after being warned by the road superintendent, the work will be done and the cost placed on the tax duplicate against the man who owns the abutting lands.

BULLET STRIKES OVER BOY'S HEART

The thirteen-year-old son of Richard Waldren, living near Cooks Station, escaped death in a very miraculous manner a few days ago, and as a result of his experience is carrying a 22-caliber bullet buried in a rib over his heart.

The boy and an older brother were shooting at a mark and the younger lad was standing near the mark when the bullet struck and was deflected, striking him in the breast.

While the wound is a serious one the lad is expected to recover within a few weeks.

HAD THEM GUESSING AS TO WHO WAS NEXT

An amusing incident occurred in Bloomingburg Friday afternoon when Sheriff Ol Nelson, Attorney A. C. Patton and Phil Davis went to that place to appraise some property for the Citizens Building and Loan Company of this city.

However, their mission was not known to the citizens of Bloomingburg and when the party reached Bloomingburg Sheriff Nelson asked Marshal Gordon for a pair of handcuffs the marshal had borrowed some time ago.

The report soon became circulated that an arrest was about to take place in or near Bloomingburg, and some are still wondering who the party was that was cast in irons.

Rev. Gage states that his congregation is still very anxious to have him remain, and has offered attractive inducements, but he believes the Presbytery will permit him to come to this city as he had planned.

SPORT LETTER

Cincinnati, July 26, 1913.

The patter of feet of the Cincinnati athletes will be heard again on Redland Field for a short period, beginning on Saturday, when the Reds return from their second eastern tour for a series of games with the four teams from the Atlantic seaboard. The present invasion of the East by Tinker's men has developed improved form on the part of the travelers, their defeats, in the main, being by close scores, while their victories have shown real class in all departments of play. So good, indeed, has been the showing of all of Tinker's hired men, that Manager Joe has placed himself on record as saying that the team will nose out at least three of the teams that now lead them, finishing at the head of the 2nd division, if not better. The present home series will be started with the Brooklyn on Saturday, with Sunday games scheduled on successive Sabbaths by Brooklyn, Boston and New York. The Reds journey East again immediately after the home series with the Eastern team.

Manager Tinker is getting rid of some of his surplus talent these days in order to be in a position to load up with youngsters as fast as they are recruited from the minors by the Reds' scouts. The first man to walk the plank is Rafael Almeida, the Cuban third baseman, who has been switched to Montreal. Manager Tink-

Clyde Milan of the Washingtons Has Not Starred as a Fielder This Year, But His Base Stealing Has Been Up to General Expectations

Washington, July 26.—Clyde Milan, the fleet base runner of the local team, has been something of a disappointment as a fielder this year. He has not been scooping up the fast ones as cleverly as he did last year, and his letting the liners get away from him has given many runs to his opponents. No one knows just why the outfielder has slumped. As a base stealer he has been up to expectations, and he has been pilfering sacks with the same ardor he showed last season.

come popular with the working classes. If the plan now on in Cincinnati to establish public links in all the parks, is generally carried out. The only handicap to the growth of the game now is lack of facilities for playing it.

Now the boxing game has taken hold in the Philippines. Word comes direct from Uncle Sam's Asiatic Islands that the little brown men of the archipelago are getting extremely expert in the use of their hands, and that a number of interesting matches are being fought. Some of the more advanced fighters among the Filipinos are taking on boxers from China and Japan, where the game has been going on for some years, and eventually these countries will prove rich picking for the better class of boxers from the United States.

Those Frenchmen certainly are there with the nerve when it comes to claiming things. Along comes the manager of George Carpentier, the French pug, and declares that his man is champion light-heavyweight (limit 178 pounds) of the world, and defies anybody to take it away from him. Billy Papke and Frank Klaus, Americans, have defeated Carpentier during the past year, but his manager has excuses to offer for both defeats, and declares it can't happen again. The fact that Carpentier is willing to fight will make him extremely welcome on these shores, and get him some ready coin, too.

C. H. ZUBER

The past week has developed no reason that would lead one to believe that the New York Giants will be headed between now and the close of the season. By the same token the Philadelphia Athletics seem to have the flag clinched in the American league. If these two teams meet in the world's combats in the fall, it will be their third series of arguments for the big prize, the Giants winning in 1905 and the Athletics in 1911. Both teams have developed some promising youngsters since they last met, while some of their old stars have deteriorated, so that there is no line to be drawn on their present strength through their encounters of two years ago. At the present time it is an even money proposition for the flag, and there will be no change on the price until near the close of the season.

The claim that golf is an old men's game was discounted during the past week, when DeWitt Balch, a 17-year-old Cincinnati boy won the Ohio State Amateur championship, defeating all the crack players of the state, and developing unusual strength and staying powers in the playing of the thirty-six holes required to decide the match. Golf is growing in favor, and promises to be-

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Sales by Weight Law Attacked.

Columbus, O., July 26.—State Food and Dairy Commissioner S. E. Strode said there appeared to be a concerted movement on the part of wholesale produce dealers throughout the state to defy the new sales by weight law. Complaints that they are continuing to sell foodstuffs, by measure instead of by weight have reached Strode from a number of cities. Prosecutions will be instituted against them as fast as his field deputies can make the necessary investigations. Strode said.

Ohio's Highest Peak.

Bellefontaine, O., July 26.—The highest point in Ohio, located on the farm of C. D. Campbell, east of Bellefontaine, is 10 feet higher than had been believed heretofore, according to engineers of the United States geological survey now working in Logan county. The height of the peak is recorded as being 1,349 feet, but the latest measurement shows it to be 1,359 feet above sea level.

Foreigner Fires Two Homes.

Kent, O., July 26.—Posses with bloodhounds are hunting for a man, believed to be a foreigner, who broke into the homes of James, Jr. and Ned Miller and set fire to them. Both of these homes were robbed a month ago and the interiors were badly damaged by vandals. A year ago a large barn on the farm of James Miller, Sr., father of the victims, was destroyed by an incendiary fire.

Boy Killed While at Play.

Cincinnati, O., July 26.—Play between two boys had a fatal ending for 13-year-old Raymond Woerner. The lad was accidentally shot with a small rifle in the left breast above the heart, the wound causing his death within an hour. The only witness to the shooting was Edward Bollke, playmate of the victim.

Woman Hit by Auto.

Cleveland, O., July 26.—Mrs. Mary Conklin, 55, was struck and probably fatally injured by an automobile in East Cleveland, which speeded away before the driver's name could be learned.

Seeks Divorce From Bride.

Bellefontaine, O., July 26.—Clark E. Harrington fled suit for a divorce from his wife, Rosa Harrington, a bride of 10 days. He alleged extreme cruelty and gross neglect.
